Chapter 31 Who is fighting right?

Her plan cannot be delayed.

“Now it’s too difficult to recruit people. It’s still a remote place in the suburbs.”

Caleb was also embarrassed for a while. Now the labor is not only expensive, the most difficult thing is that no one is willing to do it, can’t endure hardship, and the labor market can’t find it for a while. To people.

Emma really frowned, and suddenly saw the group of gangsters who were making trouble in the morning, and were walking towards them.

She suddenly became nervous: “They, how can they be untied?”

Caleb was so scared that she turned pale and hurriedly turned to look for Andrew’s figure.

Andrew is away, who can stop them?

However, this group of people just walked to Emma and bowed slightly.

“Miss Emma, two months we have at your disposal, out on the site, we do!”

Take the lead Hunzi Road.

“Ah?”

Emma was really stunned. What does that mean?

They are not here to make trouble, but to work on the site?

She was just worried that she couldn’t find any workers and speeded up the construction process. These people would come to work on the construction site.

It's just that these people, one by one, are tough, and she dare to use it.

"We don't want a salary! Just want to get things done and redeem the free body!" said the leading muffler.

Emma and others are even more stunned, do you need money for work?

It was hard work on the construction site. It was not so easy. It was very hard. They didn't even need money, just to redeem the free body.

Emma really turned around and saw Andrew coming over.

"Andrew, what the hell is going on?"

"They want to prove that besides fighting, they can do something else. Just when you are short of workers, I will let them come."

Andrew glanced at them. "You don't dare to make trouble if you use it."

Who dares Make trouble, then don't blame Andrew.

Emma still couldn't believe it. Several bastards couldn't help it. They walked directly into the construction site and carried the cement.

One of them moved, the others all moved, and asked the on-site builder what to do, and soon they all worked.

Don't fight for anything else, at least redeem your free body, and just pay off 100,000 in two months.

Looking at the troublemaker before, at the moment, he rolled up his sMaxwellves and dried up on the construction site. Emma really didn't understand how the world would change so fast.

"They really don't make trouble?"

She worried most, or they made trouble.

The project can no longer be delayed.

“Relax, people who have been abandoned will only want to prove themselves and have no time to make trouble.”

Andrew said lightly.

“That salary...” Caleb couldn’t help it.

“What kind of salary do I have? I don’t care if they ask for money.” Andrew hummed.

Emma gave Andrew a glance.

“I think about the salary again, as long as they do things seriously and speed up the construction progress, the food should be provided to them, and they cannot be allowed to work hungry.”

She is a kind woman.

After leaving the factory site to go home, Emma was still not at ease and made a few calls to Caleb to confirm that those people were working hard, and she was relieved.

But how did Andrew convince them?

They are all bastards, it’s scary to fight!

She wanted to ask Andrew, but once she saw Andrew’s expression in her hands, she didn’t want to ask him again.

What’s this guy proud of?

When I got home, I had arrived.

cynthia had already prepared a meal, and waited for Emma to come back to eat.

On the dinner table, Andrew still had a great appetite.

Logan and cynthia haven’t eaten much, but now they cook a lot every day.

“Emma, I heard something happened over the plant?”

Logan was worried.

His daughter knew that he was too kind and easily bullied.

Emma squeezed Logan’s vegetables. “Dad, don’t worry.”

She turned to glance at the gorging Andrew, but she thought that there was this guy here, hesitating whether to put him a piece of meat. , Reward.

“Thanks to Andrew, right?”

Mei Mei first gave Andrew the largest piece of ribs, “eat more.”

“Thank you mom!”

Andrew looked surprised.

“Who the hell are you, and why are you always against you?”

Logan frowned. Although Andrew was there, he couldn’t always trouble Andrew.

Emma shook her head. She only knew that those people were in the underground circle, and that was the black tiger, but she didn’t know who instructed them behind her.

“Dad, you are familiar with this person.”

Chapter 32 Idlers and dogs must not be near!

Andrew opened his mouth, “Who do you say, the most unsatisfactory achievement?” Logan stunned, looked at Cynthia, and hesitated for a moment.

“My elder brother?”

“Yes, Stuart.”

Andrew said, “He made five million people, ruining Emma’s project, or ruining Emma.”

Oliver, Logan and Cynthia both looked The big change, immediately, is angry again!

Extremely angry!

Stuart, how can he do this!

“If Emma has done this project well, it can be said that he has made a huge contribution to the Matthew Family. Stuart and his son would not want to see this.”

“But ruined this project and the Matthew Family suffered great losses!”

Logan almost couldn't bear it. Live to shoot the table.

“So what? The Matthew Family is not their father and son. The loss is lost.”

Logan blushed, knowing that Andrew was right.

He knew more clearly that his elder brother wanted to control the Matthew Family in his heart, so it was only an excuse to let his second brother Ben go to the provincial capital to open up channels, so that Emma could find a son-in-law, and he also wanted to disqualify his family. Fight again.

If the old man were still alive, he would have already started.

“He even wanted to destroy Emma, it was too much!”

cynthia had no interest in Matthew's family property, but she did not allow anyone to hurt Emma.

“No, I want to judge the old man!”

cynthia said as she stood up.

“I'm going!”

Logan was also intolerable. They were brothers, and Yu really was Stuart's niece!

How can he fight?

Wherever he has an appetite, he will go out in a wheelchair, and Emma can't stop him.

Andrew didn't stop him, let Cynthia wait at home, and he drove Logan and Emma to Matthew's house.

Matthew lives in a high-end villa area, and Andrew and they arrive at the door, they have to go in together.

"Not from the Matthew Family, no entry is allowed."

The person at the door stopped Andrew, a trace of contempt flashed across his face.

"This is my son-in-law!"

Logan shouted. "Isn't it the Matthew Family?"

"Sorry, the lord told me that only the Matthew Family can enter this room." The people at the door didn't give Logan any face.

It seems that this crippled three-servant, he? Not at all in his eyes.

"You..." Logan was anxious.

He didn't expect that his status in the Matthew Family has been looked down upon by his servants.

"Dad, I'll be waiting for you outside."

Andrew said nothing, "Emma, please accompany him."

Emma really nodded, a apology floating on his face, did not expect Andrew to enter even the door, but Andrew Her eyes signaled that she was okay.

Emma pushed Logan into the house, and Andrew was waiting at the door.

He did not intend to go in.

Andrew did not stop Logan and Emma from coming to Matthew, and questioned Stuart's behavior, just to let them see clearly. This Matthew Family has no place for them.

Even if they try harder and make the greatest achievements, they still have no effect.

“Only when people see the reality clearly can they understand what choice they should make.”

Andrew said softly.

“Stand away! Idlers and dogs must not be close!”

The man standing at the door saw Andrew still standing at the door, he could not help but hummed, “Little son-in-law, I really thought he was also a member of the Matthew Family!”

“The three heads are almost unable to stay in the Matthew Family, but also I wanted to bring my son-in-law into the Matthew’shouse. It was a laugh.”

Andrew turned his head, looked at him, and suddenly hit with a punch, hitting his stomach. The servant suddenly looked pale, and fell down while covering his stomach. .

“Can you be quiet for a while?”

Agarwood curled up in the villa.

Matthew knows how to enjoy life, especially after his wife’s death.

In the past few years, I haven’t eaten less health care medicines, just to make myself live a few more years.

The whole hall is of that kind of light fragrance, Matthew smells very comfortable, but Logan they are not used to it.

“Dad.”

Emma pushed Logan in and saw Matthew sitting on the sandalwood chair, twisting the beads in his hand, and shouted.

Matthew didn’t even open her eyelids, she still had words in her mouth, and she didn’t seem to hear them at all.

Chapter 33 Questioning!

Emma really wanted to yell in the past, Logan waved his hand, beckoning her not to disturb the old man.

He knew that they didn't have that weight, and they didn't have the right to stop the old man from doing things in his own hands.

Emma really bit her lip. This is not the first time she has seen this scene.

If Stuart and his son came, I am afraid it is another situation.

It took a while for Matthew to finish his chanting and slowly opened his eyes.

He turned his head to look at Logan's father and daughter, frowning slightly.

"Come." There are only two simple words, the tone is calm, it seems that the two people in front of him, not his son and granddaughter.

"Dad, I have something to tell you."

Logan has long been accustomed to Matthew's attitude towards himself.

Since he was crippled, he could no longer do anything for the Matthew Family, and he even needed the Matthew Family's relief. His son no longer has status.

If it weren't for Stuart's father and son to go too far, and repeatedly aimed at Emma, he didn't want to come here at all.

"Say."

Matthew still talked less and seemed unwilling to say more to Logan.

"The project that Emma is in charge of now is a critical project for my Matthew Family?"

Matthew frowned slightly, thinking that Logan came today. Do you want to ask for something?

He knew that Stuart had told him that Emma really didn't know what method was used, and Daniel would only let Emma be responsible, otherwise he would not do this project.

He was already a little unhappy, but for the benefit of the Matthew Family, he would not say it for the time being.

Unexpectedly, Logan took the initiative to ask for it.

Really this project, they can't do it without Emma?

Thinking of this, Matthew glanced at Emma with a trace of disgust in his eyes.

It's useless to have a daughter. You always have to get married. Maybe you'll have to take the family's things out.

"Yes, it's important,"

Matthew raised her eyelids. "Isn't Yu really in charge now? Why, what are the requirements?"

Emma felt a little uncomfortable.

Do they come only because there is a demand? What do you want to ask for?

"No,"

Logan shook his head. "We are from the Matthew Family. We should do things for the Matthew Family. There is no requirement, and we will not ask for anything."

"However, Big Brother has repeatedly messed up, affecting Emma's work, even Do not hesitate to ruin this project, it is too much!"

Logan was a little excited.

"He's looking for people to keep looking for rain. It's troublesome, destroying the construction of the plant site, and even trying to hurt Emma. What does that mean? This is the Matthew Family project, not my Logan father and daughter's project!"

Matthew opened his eyes wide. , Staring at Logan.

"What are you talking about?"

His face was full of disbelief.

"This is impossible."

He said directly, "Stuart is your elder brother, and now he is the person in charge of the Matthew Family. He will not do such a thing that harms the interests of the Matthew Family."

"Dad!"

Logan was anxious. Will you lie to you?"

There is evidence for this. Is it necessary for Andrew to bring those bastards over and tell Matthew that he believes?

"Huh, how do I believe you?"

Matthew said lightly, "Stuart is not such a person."

Logan looked at Matthew stunned, he suddenly felt that he came to question Stuart, it was simply stupid to the extreme.

How could Matthew believe it.

In his eyes, Stuart is his son, what is he?

"Logan, I know that you have been crippled all these years. You can't earn a penny for the Matthew Family. You have to reach out and ask for it. This kind of taste is uncomfortable."

Logan's eyes were red.

"But you shouldn't discredit your big brother. In these years, without his help, you can't live long."

"Now this project is really responsible for Emma, and Stuart has repeatedly recommended it to me, hoping to give your family a chance, you are Okay, don't stare at Emma to work hard, but tell your brother's bad words instead?"

Matthew shook his head, disappointed. "You let me be too disappointed."

"Grandpa..."

Emma was really annoyed, Matthew was so angry It's nonsense!

“Don’t talk,”

Matthew interrupted her directly. “At the Matthew’s house, you still don’t have the right to speak!”

Chapter 34 Disappointment!

Emma was really scolded, even more ugly.

“Don’t think it’s you who is in charge of this project now, and you will get rid of it. I will do this project for you. You should be grateful to your uncle. Without him recommending you, I will not give you this opportunity.”

This is very straightforward. .

Emma suddenly felt a bit ironic. How hard was he to work hard and to complain?

Not only did Stuart not help, but he also stumbled secretly, but now it is good, Matthew even thanked him.

Thank him for keeping embarrassing himself.

“Grandpa, you have been partial to their family since you were young. I don’t say anything,”

Emma took a deep breath. “But in front of right and wrong, can you have a little principle?”

“Come on!”

Matthew was furious, slapping on the table with a slap. On, “Dare you talk to me like that!”

He glared at Emma, not expecting her to be so big or small.

“Logan! This is the daughter you taught? If you don’t teach, don’t give birth!”

Matthew yelled, “What’s the use of having a money-losing product, can my Matthew Family count on you? Get out! “

Logan wanted to argue, but he found he couldn’t say anything.

Looking at Emma's extreme grievances, he blamed himself, he was ashamed, and as a father, he could not shield his daughter from the wind and Emma, even if she suffered such contempt and insult!

Logan clenched his fists tightly and has never been desperate like today.

"Emma, let's go."

He gave Matthew a deep look, and he felt for the first time that this father was far away from him.

Emma really said nothing, pushing Logan away.

Behind him, Matthew was still scolding.

"Moth! It's a family of moths! There is no gratitude at all. I'm really blind. I will give you a chance!"

The heart of Logan's father and daughter was so painful that they would humiliate them. From the closest people.

When they walked out of the gate of the villa, neither of them looked good.

Grievance, frustration, disappointment, and anger!

Andrew had already guessed it.

After this time, they should understand that the Matthew Family has nothing to do with them.

The reason why they can stay in the Matthew Family is because Emma still has use value.

Once this project is completed, Matthew will not hesitate to kick Emma out of the Matthew Family!

He didn't ask, just walked over and took Emma, pushing Logan's wheelchair: "Emma, go to the car door, we'll go home."

The atmosphere in the car was a bit dull.

Sitting in the back row, Logan finally couldn't help but punched angrily on his unconscious leg.

"Waste! Waste!"

Logan smashed his leg, "Logan, you are a waste!"

"Dad!"

Emma really hurt, turned his head, and tears could not help flowing out, "Don't do this."

"Emma, yes Dad is useless, I'm sorry for you! Let you be wronged like this."

Logan's lips trembled.

He blamed himself and was even more ashamed.

If you are not disabled, this is certainly not the case.

Even though Matthew looked at Emma as a girl, but at least he could shield her from the wind and rain so that no one would bully her.

"Dad, I didn't blame you, really, I never blamed you."

Emma shook his head. "Dad and Mom love me very much, and they give me the best. I know that you don't have to blame yourself."

Today, she saw clearly that their family had almost no weight in Matthew's eyes.

Even if they try harder, what's the use?

After all, it is better to say a few good words from Stuart.

Logan grabbed his hair. He hated his incompetence. The more Emma comforted him, the more he felt guilty.

"Dad, Emma now suffers so much grievances, it is indeed your responsibility."

Andrew, who had never spoken, glanced at the rearview mirror.

Emma really turned around and said: “Andrew, what are you talking about!”

“Because of your weakness, everyone in the Matthew Family despised you and dared to humiliate my mother and Emma indiscriminately. They are women, but they have to bear so much. Should be ashamed.”

Chapter 35 Tingling

“Andrew!”

Emma really shouted, “You are not allowed to say my dad!”

She red eyes, tears can not stop flowing.

No one should say her father!

Andrew didn't care: “If you can be tougher, can you be more arrogant, are my mother and Yu really bullied?”

“My mother's skirt has been worn for a few years?”

“What else does she buy ?” Cosmetics?”

“Emma could continue to study and study, why did she go to Matthew's job as soon as she graduated from undergraduate?”

“She goes out at dawn and returns home in the dark. Who is tall?”

Andrew said, almost torn Logan!

He showed no mercy and cleaned Logan cleanly, and all his dignity was gone at this moment.

What kind of man is it that he can't take care of his wife and cannot protect his daughter?

“Andrew...I beg you to stop talking.”

Emma took Andrew's sMaxwellve, “Will you stop hurting my dad?”

Andrew glanced at Emma and parked the car to the side of the road.

“I didn’t hurt him. He hurt him. It has always been him.”

Andrew said, “His legs are broken, but his legs can’t stand up, but now, he can’t stand up.”

“Andrew, what you said Yes.”

Logan smiled bitterly. “I’ve been kneeling for a long time and can’t stand up, not my legs.”

“I can heal your legs and let you stand up again, but if I can’t stand up mentally , This leg, it does not make sense to cure.”

Andrew said politely.

Logan looked up, facing Andrew’s eyes.

“My mother chose you, do you have the heart to let her lose all her life?”

bang-

Logan felt his head roar.

Let cynthia lose all his life?

She married such a crippled and disabled disabled person, and she didn’t know how many times she was laughed at by her family, but cynthia never said a complaint in front of herself.

He used to pretend he didn’t know, but now, can he still pretend?

“No!”

Logan clenched his fists suddenly, and his face looked awkward. “I can’t let her lose all her life! She is my wife, and I can’t let her be laughed at because of me!”

Andrew nodded and restarted the car.

“That’s all right, you are ready, our family is about to rise.”

After that, Logan and Emma were both stunned. Will our family rise?

What does Andrew mean?

Andrew didn't say it again.

Back home, Logan's eyes were red, and he went back to the house without a word, and fell as Maxwellp, making Cynthia worried.

"Emma, what happened?"

Emma shook his head.

After Andrew said those words, Logan was just like that. She was also worried, and gave Andrew a blameful look. Why did she say such a cruel thing?

"Mom, don't worry, Dad is tired. Tomorrow, I will give you a different man."

After that, Andrew returned to the house.

At that time, the hot spring club.

The black tiger's face is ugly. www.onlinefreenovels.com

He stared at Stuart and said coldly: "Mr. Stuart, you are so kind, and deliberately conceal so much information."

"The project Daniel also has a share, why didn't you tell me?"

"What did Tiger Brother say, that is my Matthew's project, and what does it have to do with Daniel? He just exchanged our money for the channel, The money and goods were cleared."

Stuart snorted. "But Emma has some skill.

I'm afraid that he would climb into Daniel's bed and serve him well, so he was so unscrupulous." "I don't care. "

Black Tiger waved his hand, "For your business, my 68 brothers were still detained at the construction site. One hundred thousand. How do you say this matter was resolved?"

Stuart smiled lightly, and did not speak.

How to deal with it?

You took me 5 million before and after fu*king, and things haven't been done right now, dare to ask me what to do?

Your people are useless, they are all waste!

Seeing that Stuart had nothing to do with me, Black Tiger scolded inwardly.

Knowing that it is impossible for Stuart to make any more money, after all, he took the money himself, but things were not done well.

"Now that Daniel is involved, things are not easy to handle,"

Benjamindao said. "And, I have looked for Daniel. He said that there are others behind him, who I can't afford to offend!"
